Dragging layers To move a layer up or down in the Layers panel, drag a handle on it. Press and hold the Ctrl (Windows) or (Mac) key while you drag to constrain your movement. This is a little-known feature: By holding down the key, you can move layers faster than by clicking on a layer and then dragging its thumbnail up or down.

grandstands, he was greeted by a steady barrage of boos as another big night of baseball was winding down in Fenway Park. The moment would have been familiar to Gibbons, who was booed when he did a few things well and later appreciated when he did a few things right. "I know why I'm here," Gibbons said. "People want to see the guys that win consistently, too. As long as they do that, I'm fine with it. I'm really not that bothered by
